

Prisoners Would Die Like Flies Without Red Cross - Veteran

Should Thank God For Canada's Freedom From War, Bombs, Revolution, Hunger, Pastor Tells Lions

Treatment of prisoners in Germany in this war is somewhat better than in the last war but even in this war prisoners could not live without the Red Cross food parcels, Rev. Henry Cotton told Newmarket Lions club on Monday evening.

President Frank Bowser was in the chair. H. E. Lambert, who introduced Mr. Cotton, told the club that the $7,500 Newmarket district Red Cross budget was a 30 percent increase over the amount realized in the last campaign.

"It is going to take the best we can all do to make it," said Mr. Lambert.

Lions Treasurer Frank Courtney announced that he had given the Red Cross a cheque for $250 in accordance with the budget.

"One big thing that the Red Cross does, perhaps the biggest, is to take a great interest in prisoners of war, not only to feed them but to send representatives to the various countries to interview them and bring back reports on their treatment," said Mr. Cotton.

"If anything, the treatment of prisoners of war by the Germans is better in this war than in the last. The camps are better organized, sanitary arrangements are better and parcels are going through."

"Letters from the two Newmarket prisoners of war indicate that their treatment is good."

"There are different classes of camps. Officers are put in their camps. N.C.O.s, when not in charge of work gangs, have their camps. Officers are not expected to work. They are expected to pay for their board."

"We also had to pay for hot water and wood for cooking purposes."

"I was shot down in a dog fight at 15,000 feet. I was wounded in the right arm shortly after we crashed. The pilot who shot us down kept firing at us after the crash. It was said afterwards that that was to prevent us from setting fire to our planes."

"We were surrounded by pointed revolvers. The interpreter told us that they didn't like Canadians, because Canadians didn't take prisoners. That was true that the Canadians were shooting their prisoners at that particular part of the line because a story had been circulated among our men that the Germans had crucified two of our sergeants on a barn door."

"They told us that their men, in retaliation, weren't taking prisoners either. However, the interpreter told us that we were lucky that we had come down three kilometres behind the lines and that we would be taken prisoners."

Mr. Cotton displayed prison camp menu cards which he had brought home with him after the armistice.

"We were allowed a little over a pound of German war-time black bread every three days."

With the bread there was some kind of grease. The story had been printed at that time in the British papers that the Germans were rendering down their dead for grease. I never tasted the grease we were given with our bread. It was of vegetable origin. I don't believe that there was a vestige of truth in the story that the Germans rendered their dead."

REV. HENRY COTTON

"We seldom drank the ersatz coffee. We believed that it was made of acorns and horse chestnuts."

"On one occasion we found our meat ration at the bottom of a cistern of soup. It wasn't a cow's head. I butchered for years and I know a cow's head. It wasn't a horse's head. We came to the conclusion that it was a deer's head. This was the ration of meat for a week for 600 officers."

"If it hadn't been for the Red Cross parcels we would have died like flies. I had a ton and a half of food delivered to me while I was a prisoner. Until my first parcel arrived I became almost skin and bones. I got so weak I couldn't walk."

"The Red Cross bread came through to us from Switzerland solid green with mould and three weeks old. We washed the mould off, kneaded it and rebaked it. We kept the German sawdust bread for fuel."

"We had an easy time compared with the men. We didn't have to work. The only hardship we had was hunger."

"Do any of you men pray?" Mr. Cotton asked in conclusion. "We ought to thank God every night that we have had no war, no bombs, no revolution, no hunger such as they know on the continent, within living memory."

"We are fortunate. We ought to thank God for Canada, and I hope that we keep the freedom that we enjoy for our children and our children's children."

BOARD ASKS MORE DETAIL ON TEACHING

Junior Red Cross in the public schools as in former years was approved by the public school board at a meeting on Friday evening. Chairman Rev. J. A. Koffend presided.

The question of kindergarten tables and chairs for the primary room at the Alexander Muir school was referred to the property committee.

Secretary R. L. Pritchard read the report of Inspector C. A. Lapp.

"Ontario has the second lowest educational standards in Canada, and yet the inspector's report is always in glowing terms," commented Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards. "The teachers and the teaching are always above average."

"It was said to me that the reports always concern the special work and never mention classroom teachers," said Mr. Koffend. "Is that so?"

"Does the inspector ever meet with the board?" asked Dr. G. E. Case.

"I asked him about that when he was here and he said he didn't consider it necessary," said Mr. Koffend.

"I think that we have a splendid staff of teachers," said Frank Bothwell. "As a town I think that we are above the average. When you see entrance results in the papers, that is apparent."

Mr. Bothwell said that he understood that as a result of complaints from the high school the public schools were going back to some extent to the old methods which preceded the "new course of studies."

Dr. Case said that inspectors as a class were inclined to "take the smooth course, offending no one."

The board passed a resolution referring criticisms made by the inspector concerning the cleanliness of one school and icy steps at two of the schools to the property committee, and asked the inspector in the future to make a report on the work of each member of the staff. This was the practice of his two predecessors, stated Mr. Pritchard and Mr. Bothwell.

(The inspector's report will be published in next week's issue.)

THREE ALARMS, NONE SERIOUS, ARE RUNG IN

Newmarket firemen have been called out three times in the past week. They answered a call to the military camp last Thursday evening, but the fire was out before they got there.

A false alarm took the firemen to the north end of the town on Sunday afternoon. The fire alarm box had not been touched and the firemen are of the opinion that the alarm was caused by a short circuit in the wiring.

A chimney fire at the home of Howard McClymont, 65 Queen St. E., on Tuesday afternoon was put out with chemicals.

NEWMARKET ARTISTS REPRESENTED IN SHOW

"Local Grist Mill, Millbrook, Ont." is the title of an oil painting by R. L. Chadwick, Newmarket, in the 71st annual spring exhibition of the Ontario Society of Artists now being held at the Art Gallery of Toronto.

The picture is painted from a sketch Mr. Chadwick made at Millbrook, near Peterboro, last winter, and covers a canvas 25 by 30 inches.

This is the second picture Mr. Chadwick has had accepted for exhibition by the Ontario Society of Artists, and the fifth of his pictures which has been accepted for exhibition.

Mr. Chadwick has been invited by the Art Gallery of Toronto to send two pictures to an all-Canadian show beginning at the end of this month. The present O.S.A. show continues until March 29.

Fred Hagan of the Pickering College staff has a picture entitled "Bus Terminal" in the present show.

Children Gather Enough Fat For 600 Lbs. Cordite

Approximately 1,000 pounds of fat were collected on Saturday morning when the Strand theatre gave the use of the theatre and put on a special show, admission being one pound of fat.

Some 350 public school children competed for seven prizes. The grand prize was won by Allen Jackson, who brought in 120 pounds. Other prizewinners were: girls, Audrey Brice, Mary Epworth and Bernice Darrnell; boys, Frank Proctor, Ron Lockhart and Bob Budd.

Prizes were given by Morrison's Men's Wear, Gilroy's Best Drug Store, Brunton's, Smith's Hardware, Chainway, Stedman's, Consins' Dairy, Riddell's Bakery and Eves' millinery shop.

Fats are on the "urgent" list of salvage materials and are used for the production of explosives, but has many other uses, some of which are vital war secrets.

One thousand pounds of fat produces 100 pounds of glycerine, which makes 600 pounds of cordite, sufficient for 6,500 rounds of machine-gun ammunition or 180 tank mines.

Principal H. A. Jackson helped to arrange this splendid collection.

Canvassers Make Nice Start On Long Road To $7,500 Objective

First Three Days Of Canvass Show Over $1,100, Red Cross Is Your Envoy To The Unfortunate

Newmarket Red Cross campaign headquarters says: "Newmarket and district objective is $7,500."

"Subscriptions to date amount to $1,126.60."

"We have a long way to go yet to reach that objective. Subscriptions reaching the committee practically all show increases over last year and the results are very gratifying. BUT."

"In this year 1943, we are all 'up to the hill' in war! A good many homes in Canada are terribly homesick of missing fathers... sons... or husbands. We have been 'touched' to the heart by battles on land, and sea and air. Who is there who can stand aloof and not be part of it?"

"And yet... we Canadians are still on the 'giving side.' Why? Because unlike the war-torn European countries our factories still function... full blast... our trains run, on schedule... our fields of grain ripen, are harvested. We still have 'bread.'"

"We have been sharing our good fortune... our blessedness... with those less fortunate, ever since the beginning of the struggle. We have now come to the place where we must share... more!"

"Food must go forward to our prisoners of war. Blood plasma must be kept at the scene of all battles... on ships... on land... where bombs fall. For clothing and medicines, bedding and bandages, the war-weary peoples of our Allies look to us for help. We have not failed them. We shall not!"

"The Canadian Red Cross has been your envoy in caring for your less fortunate brothers. The Canadian Red Cross needs $10,000,000 to carry on this great task. Our appeal last year was met with the open-handed generosity typical of loyal Canadians everywhere."

"We have said to you simply, 'We MUST have $10,000,000 to keep our pact of mercy.' Is it presumptuous to say that we KNOW what your answer will be?"

"Behind the drive for funds in the Newmarket district is an energetic group of men and women who are giving of their time freely and willingly, courageously lending every effort to further the cause of humanity. Our ladies in particular are not only canvassing the district NOW, facing stormy weather and being forced to sacrifice home duties that the work of the Red Cross might be carried on, BUT are giving many hours EVERY WEEK throughout the entire year in sewing rooms, etc., and if it were possible to give the picture of the actual hours of labor thus spent we are sure it would be very interesting."

"WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF OUR LADIES WERE CONSTANTLY TALKING IN TERMS OF STRIKES, SHORTER HOURS, etc. No such thought exists in the minds of this noble group."

"NOW, Mr. AVERAGE CITIZEN. What part are you playing in this effort in comparison? Your part is also most necessary. 'GIVE... GIVE... GIVE.'"

"Do you know that the professional hockey players have contributed their salaries for four games throughout the winter to the Red Cross. An average subscription of $400 for each player. This is the result of organized sport. What about a little organized self-sacrifice?"

All-Season Lead Lost In Final Two Minutes Of Play

NEWMARKET STARS SUFFER ECLIPSE IN PLAY-OFF SERIES

By BILL HASKETT

They won eight straight games. They tied one. Then they lost one. That, in a nutshell, is the way Newmarket Redmen were eliminated from further competition in the intermediate O.H.A. series.

Brampton camp came to town last Thursday evening. They went home possessors of a 9-7 overtime victory. This gave them the right to meet Midland Shipbuilders for the group title.

Ted Lister was the scoring hero for Brampton. This former army "Daggers" player picked up five goals for himself. Also a couple of assists. McMullen and Innarelli, with two goals apiece, were the other Brampton marksmen. Nesbitt, Bob Bangay and McMaster got two apiece for Newmarket. Nick Bangay got one.

The O.H.A. sent both a referee and a linesman to handle the game. "Pat" Patterson, the referee, and LeMaitre, the linesman, handed out 18 penalties. Newmarket got eight of them, Brampton ten.

The irony of the game was that the Redmen were leading 7-5 with one minute to go in the third period. Then they blew the lead and Brampton seemed to have enough fight left in them to score two more in the overtime period. Brampton just got under the wire at that. They scored the winning goal with just 30 seconds to go.

During the first period of the game the fire whistle blew. When it was announced that it was a small fire at the camp, loud rounds of applause broke out. When somebody said the fire was out, nearly every soldier in the arena boomed. Szabo, the smart centremen, on the Brampton second line, suffered a painful injury in the third period when he was body-checked by McMaster. Jack Wheeler of the local team should aim his shots better. In the first period he shot the puck into the Newmarket players' bench and hit Ted McMaster right on the forehead. This painful injury seemed to rob McMaster of some of his effectiveness. Brampton staged a victory march after the game. Their bugle band, followed by their players and fans, paraded around the local ice surface for ten or

HEPBURN OUT OF OFFICE

(The following editorial article had been entitled "Hepburn Out of Step," and was intended for publication last week. It might have been entitled "Hepburn Out of Sorts." Now it must appear under the title "Hepburn Out of Office.")

The North York Temperance Federation "heartily commends the courageous stand taken by the premier of Canada . . . in the banning of all liquor advertising." The Era and Express did likewise in a recent editorial, but it should now be noted, to keep the record straight, that "all liquor advertising" is not to be banned. The ban was to be effective Feb. 1, but magazines and newspapers appearing since that date have carried advertising by liquor companies which makes it evident that the only ban is on the advertising of their alcoholic beverages. They will still be allowed to put their names before the public in many other ways, so far as the dominion is concerned and of course so far as the liquor control board of Ontario is concerned. A press report that the ban was so strict that liquor companies would not even be able to give away athletic sweaters, ash-trays, golf shields, etc., was premature.

The liquor companies will be able to tell the public of their production of industrial alcohol and probably be able to advocate helping the Red Cross and buying Victory bonds. They are not being so noble as might at first thought appear, for if they did not do this kind of advertising and pick up some good-will and a few present and future sales they would have to turn the money spent on advertising over to the dominion treasury in excess profits taxes.

The North York Temperance Federation, according to another resolution from its recent Keswick convention, intends to exact pledges from candidates for North York at the next provincial election to "agree to do all in their power to wipe out the beverage room and greatly reduce the sale of intoxicating liquors in government stores."

Why wait? The Federation should go now to Morgan Baker, the member for this riding, and urge him to make the views of the people of this riding on this subject known to the government. The majority of the people of this riding approve of a system of government control and government sale but they do not approve of the conditions now existing. The members of the legislature, who receive $2,000 salary for a few days of "sitting" (not many more than the conventional 21 of a "clucky" hen), could afford to give this important problem a little attention.

Conditions in the city of Toronto beverage rooms have become so bad that the police commissioners have asked the liquor control board to close some of them. A city police inspector reported to the commission that he had offered to co-operate with liquor control board officers in cleaning up undesirable conditions but that they were not interested. "The province needs the revenue!" comments the Toronto Star.

Premier M. F. Hepburn complains of the loss of liquor revenue which will result from dominion government restrictions. Ontario netted about $18,000,000 out of the liquor trade in 1942. A pre-war figure would be $10,000,000 to $12,000,000. Mr. Hepburn's complaint is that this revenue will be cut down to what it used to be. He wants the dominion government to make up the loss to the province.

He doesn't gauge Ontario public opinion accurately. Ontario people do not want $7,000,000 (Mr. Hepburn's estimate), raised through the sale of Victory bonds, paid back to Ontario to enable Mr. Hepburn to make a good showing as provincial treasurer.

Mr. Hepburn sends The Era and Express copies of letters between himself and Hon. J. L. Ilsley, dominion minister of finance, dated January, 1942, in which Mr. Ilsley, in reply to representations by Mr. Hepburn, said: "It is not the intention of the dominion government to enter the field of regulation of the sale of alcoholic beverages or to treat it as other than one belonging entirely to the provinces."

Mr. Hepburn vacated certain fields of taxation, apparently, in view of this assurance or statement of intention. The dominion government, as a result of increasing consumption of liquor and changing public opinion, changed its intention and "interfered."

Mr. Ilsley, however, in making his assurance, did so in reply to a letter from Mr. Hepburn which contained the following statement: "In return I can assure you that should an emergency arise which would make it advisable to restrict the sale of intoxicating liquors I will act promptly in the matter."

Such an emergency arose, apparently in the opinion of the dominion government, but not in the opinion of Mr. Hepburn.

DR. GORDON AND MR. BARTENDER

For years the newspapers of Ontario, or most of those which discussed the subject, have declared that the Ontario liquor control board does not control the sale of liquor but promotes it. Now there would seem to be an open admission of that fact with the appointment of the chairman of the liquor control board as provincial treasurer. Hon. A. St. Clair Gordon is to hold both offices: the position of the man who should be trying to keep sales at a minimum, and the position of the man who wants to balance the provincial budget and wants all the revenue he can get.

IN THE INTERESTS OF PROPERTY OWNERS

For some years, before the war, Newmarket had seven medical doctors. These doctors each would have a gross revenue which would vary from say $3,000 to say $10,000. An average of $5,000 each would mean that the citizens of the town and district were paying $35,000 a year in medical bills in addition to their hospital bills. And if they were "paying" $35,000, they were incurring bills amounting to a great deal more than that, for doctors have more than their share of bad accounts.

At the present time Newmarket has only three doctors in full-time practice. Would it be a good investment for the people of the town to spend $2,000 a year, part of it through a municipal grant, on a Victorian Order nurse, who would make a call for 50 cents or 75 cents, or nothing if circumstances warranted, and advise whether a doctor should be called?

It is our opinion that that would be a good investment for everybody in the town, including landlords and property-owners, since the property-owner question has been raised. The value of property and the rent it commands depends on the number of people who want to live in the town and on their prosperity. And those two factors depend on the health and wealth of all the people, and the services such as schools, police, fire protection, pavements, sidewalks, hospital, stores, available in the town.

If the tax rate were going to go up as a result of a grant for a V.O.N. nurse, then it might be arguable that, as rents are frozen, it would be unfair to landlords to make such a grant. But the tax rate is not going to go up. There is no need for the tax rate to go up. On the other hand, it might be argued that, as rents are frozen, and landlords are not going to lower rents, the tax rate should not be lowered at the present time. The town should continue to spend the same amount of money on community services. If there is a school debt which has to be paid for this year, the town should substitute some other service, such as a grant to a public health nurse and an increased grant to York county hospital.

W. M. COCKBURN INSTALLED AS ELDER AT ST. ANDREW'S

On Sunday morning at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, an impressive ceremony took place in the form of the ordination and installation of W. Moffat Cockburn as elder on the kirk-session of the church. Addressing the elder-elect in his sermon, the minister, Rev. J. A. Koffend, reminded his congregation that "all through the ages the call to office of any type had come to men who were engulfed with many other calls and obligations and even the Master himself chose men from the ordinary run of life to gather around Him as His disciples."

He further commented that "a man's goodness and personal relationship with Christ are a necessary asset and prerequisite to an office of so high a calling as the eldership yet God does not scrutinize one's past to affect his future."

Following the sermon on "Obedient to the Call," the elder-elect, accompanied by the members of the session, came forward and the service of ordination was consecrated.

Gathering the Sport Facts

The residents of our fair town who managed to crowd into the Strand theatre Monday and Tuesday nights last week to see "The Pride of the Yankees" were lucky. Over in the States the picture was released nearly nine months ago at road show prices. This meant that the picture was shown only at certain selected theatres at prices ranging anywhere from $1 to $2. The prices were set on the same schedule as those for "Gone With the Wind."

The picture, which depicted the life of Lou Gehrig, will not go into general release at scaled-down prices until sometime in April. The Samuel Goldwyn production has already grossed more than $2,000,000. The spring release has been set by the movie moguls, to coincide with the opening of the 1943 ball season.

While we are on the subject of Lou Gehrig, let's talk about first basemen in general and their ill luck. It is a funny thing but the three greatest first basemen of all time met with tragedy in the latter part of their careers. Hal Chase, the greatest defensive first-sacker of all time and one of the most graceful players, dropped out of baseball after an accident. George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns hit for an average of .420 in 1922. Then he suffered a severe sinus attack. This sinus trouble first made him cross-eyed and then impaired his vision. After that he was hardly an average player.

Gehrig perhaps had the most tragic experience of them all. Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, after playing in 2,130 consecutive games for the New York Yankees. His death was the result of a baffling disease, which was actually a form of infantile paralysis. Frank Chance and Jake Daubert, two other great first-sackers, died early too. Chance died at the age of 47. Daubert passed away shortly after the close of the 1924 season. At the time of his death he was only 39.

Here are the last three-star selections of the 1943 season. As you probably know by now, Newmarket camp was eliminated last Thursday evening. This is the last time we will be able to give Strand theatre passes to the local selections. Our thanks go to Morley McPhee for his generosity in giving these passes.

Our selections for last Thursday's hockey game went first to Ted Lister of the Brampton camp team. Until we saw this fellow in action it was our opinion that Bob Bangay was the best centre-man in the group. But seeing Lister changed all that. On his showing the other night he is without a doubt the best hockey player to show in the arena this season. Lister is a hard-rock miner from the north country. For three years he has played for McIntyre Mines in the N.O.H.A. His home is at Timmins. Four years ago he came down to southern Ontario to play for St. Catharines Saints in the O.H.A., but the next season he returned to the north country. He started this season with the army "Daggers" in the O.H.A. senior series.

Joe Iannarelli picked up the second star. This boy is also a northerner. He was born in Schumacher and has played most of his hockey with McIntyre Mines. He put in one season with Kitchener Greenshirts.

when he was still of junior age. But he also likes the north country and it is just our bad fortune that he was transferred to Brampton camp. Lister and Iannarelli were the two main cogs in the Brampton line-up. Iannarelli also started the season with the army senior team in Toronto.

Ernie Hughes, goalkeeper for the local team, got the third star. Despite the fact that Hughes let in nine goals, he played a good game. The team didn't seem to have any defence to speak of, possibly due to their long lay-off. Hughes robbed Brampton of sure goals on many occasions. Hughes is a Toronto boy. For years he has played mercantile hockey in the big city. Last year he played for Evening Telegram in the Varsity arena loop. The year before that he was between the pipes for Donnel and Mudge in the West Toronto mercantile league.

Something new was added to the local hockey scene last Thursday when Bill Hewitt sent both a linesman and a referee to handle the game. To our knowledge this has never been seen in the local arena before. It is an idea which has been tried in the intermediate games down around Belleville and found satisfactory. Up here it worked well too. The only trouble is that on a small ice surface too many officials get in the way. Patterson and LeMaitre handled a good game though. We didn't hear of anyone who criticized their work.

The smartest crack of the night came from a Brampton fan who remarked that "it was a shame to let such a good ice surface go to waste." Brampton, as you probably know, have no rink of their own and have to play their games at Georgetown.

Newmarket hockey fans just about got a chance to see H.M.C. S. York navy club this week. Stan Smith, manager of the Newmarket arena, and the executive of the camp team got in touch with the bosses of the navy club yesterday and tried to arrange an exhibition game for Thursday. However, the navy club were playing a game in Stratford on that night. The manager of the club said they might come up Wednesday. Just when things looked as though we might have a real game to watch, coach "Pick" Hines of the navy said no. He would send a team up but it would not contain all his stars, although Billie Wilson and Hughie Mair would be with it. However, the powers that be in town decided that if all the team couldn't come, there was no use holding the game. The navy are without a play-off game this week because of the skating carnival in Toronto, but from now on they will be busy and we probably won't get a chance to see them this year.

The series between Aurora all-stars and Newmarket camp team is off as far as Newmarket is concerned, chiefly because it wouldn't draw peanuts in the local rink. The local entry is going to Aurora to play on Thursday night against the Ordinance corps.

Our Newmarket juvenile entry managed to tie Aurora 3-3 on Friday night. They go into action in Newmarket on Thursday night against Sutton.

SAYS TOWN COULD BE MOST ATTRACTIVE

(Contributed by Newmarket Horticultural Society)

Did you ever hear of Newmarket Horticultural Society? Did you ever notice the trees and shrubs planted around our Victory flag-pole? Did you ever see the improvement around the town hall, shrubs, trees and lawns? Did you ever notice trees planted on north Main St. and other streets?

If you did, you have noticed the work of the society. A thoroughly worth-while society who unselfishly work for the beautifying of our town which, with a little boosting from every citizen, could be made the greatest little town in Toronto's neighborhood.

The reason for all these why's and wherefore's is that spring will soon be around again and our society is already making plans for this season's improvements. For a very small sum of money you can all have a hand in this worth-while work. Be a member of Newmarket Horticultural Society and help us make this THE TOWN.

This Message Is Addressed TO WAR WORKERS

Many people now engaged in war industries find their work much different from previous occupations. War needs demand utmost concentration for ever-increasing production.

Adequate eyesight means more efficient work, less fatigue, and reduces the possibility of accidents. Whatever your wartime work may be, be sure your eyesight is equal to the task.

Dwells a dear sweet loved one of ours

Whom we cherished so dear.

But God called her from this earth.

To a greater home of rest.

Forget you, dear mother, we never will.

As years roll on we miss you still.

The blow was great, the shock severe.

We little thought the end was near.

It's only those who have lost can tell.

The sorrows of parting without farewell.

But God is good to give us strength

To bear so great a loss.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by husband and family.

Playter - In memory of our most beloved and only son, John Watson Clarkson Playter, who was taken into rest March 12, 1941.

Remembrance is a golden chain.

Death tries to break, but all in vain.

To have, to love, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The years may wipe out many things.

But this they wipe out never - The memory of those happy days When we were all together.

Sadly missed by Dad, Mother, his wife, Mildred, sister, Mildred, and brother-in-law, Frank, also many close relatives.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY

N.G. RED CROSS ASKS
FOR WHITE ELEPHANTS

The regular executive meeting of the North Gwillimbury branch of the Red Cross Society was held in the Community hall, Belhaven, on March 2 and was well attended.

Many items of business were dealt with. A new unit was formed at Willow Beach with Mrs. M. Sedore as vice-president.

Mrs. S. Pegg was appointed convener of the committee for overseas correspondence. It was reported by Mrs. Fisher, work convener, that 55 quilts received since Jan. 1, and other sewing had been shipped.

The knitting is going along well. There is a great shortage of wool for the services at the present. Wool conveners have sufficient for British civilian knitting.

Percy Mahoney, who is in charge of the Red Cross campaign, outlined plans and the campaign will get under way as soon as road conditions improve. This appeal is urgent.

The annual meeting of the Ontario division of the Red Cross Society will be held at the Royal York hotel, Toronto, on April 2. Mrs. Wm. Vail, president, and Mrs. M. Sedore, Willow Beach vice-president, were appointed as delegates.

The regular monthly sewing days will be resumed in the township hall at Belhaven and will be held on March 24 and 25.

The convener of the salvage committee, George White, will be around again as soon as weather conditions are improved. Residents are asked to have their papers, magazines, etc., tied up.

It was decided to hold a white elephant sale and display of work in Belhaven hall on March 25, when it is hoped Rex Frost, an honorary president of the branch, will be present. M. Sedore will act as auctioneer for the occasion.

Wm. Davison, convener of entertainment, whose committee will have charge of the white elephant sale, is anxious that all will do their best to make this a real community effort.

Residents are asked to search thoroughly. You may have some article which as far as you are concerned has outlived its usefulness. Your neighbor may need or desire the very thing you have discarded. Any article in good condition will be welcome, furniture, pictures, dishes, lamps, quilts, handwork, or produce from the farm, such as eggs, fowl, vegetables.

There will be receiving depots at the post offices at Belhaven, Ravenshoe and Willow Beach, Lockersbie at Elmhurst and Vail's and Davison's in Keswick.

Miss Eva Gilroy, in charge of sewing, is anxious for more workers in her department.

The dance on Friday evening was a success. Music was supplied by Mount Albert orchestra. There is another dance being planned for the immediate future.

A euchre is being held at Mr. and Mrs. S. Pegg's home for funds for local work on Thursday evening.

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

JUVENILES' BATTLE
ENDS IN 3-3 TIE

Aurora hockey fans were handed a free treat by the local juveniles on Friday evening when they hooked up with Cliff Gunn's Newmarket youngsters.

The game ended in a 3-3 tie, with some fine hockey being displayed by both teams. Both sides were minus several of their players, but kept up a brisk pace throughout. Missing from the Aurora team were Gar. Doolittle, Bob Walker, Owen Richards and Earl and Gene Rose, with Jack Davidson making his first start.

Newmarket opened the scoring in the first period with Robert Smith firing home Elphinstone's pass. Penalties kept the Tedmen in hot water and finally Eric Bilbrough gave the 14-year-old right winger made no mistake. Neither team could tally in the second period, but Smith and Palmatier both were called on to make several brilliant saves.

George Chantler put Newmarket in front right after the final period got under way, and midway through Eric Bilbrough blasted two beauties to give Aurora what looked like the winning margin.

With only a few minutes to go, Don Smith picked up a loose puck and batted home the deadlocker. Palmatier, Tunstead and the Smith boys were the best for the visitors, while Bilbrough, Whitey Jones and Bill Mundell, along with Eric Smith, had a slight edge for their mates.

The referee was little to choose between the ability of any of the lads on either team. Harry Sutton handled the game in fine style.

A pretty wedding took place at Trinity Anglican church, Aurora, on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 27, when Rhea Simpson Ireland, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Aurora, became the bride of James Hamilton of Schomberg, eldest son of Mrs. Robert Hamilton, County Down, Ireland, and the late Mr. Hamilton.

The bride wore a peplum two-piece dress of rayon crepe sea blue with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Barbara Simpson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a turquoise blue dress of rayon alpaca with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom was supported by Thomas Ellison of Schomberg.

A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress trimmed with white and a corsage of red roses. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a yellow gold cameo ring and to the best man a black onyx signet ring.

The happy couple left on a short wedding trip.

COUPLE WED AT
STANLEY BARRACKS

The marriage took place on Saturday at Stanley barracks chapel, Toronto, of Doris Elizabeth Glosier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Sutton, to Sgt. Donald James Murray, R.C.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Murray of Aurora.

The ceremony was performed by Capt. Rev. J. Mechin, padre at Stanley barracks.

The bride, wearing in marriage by her father, a navy blue suit, with powder blue hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. Her attendant, Mrs. Herbert McKenzie, Aurora, wore an air force blue suit, with black accessories and a corsage of sweet heart roses. Herbert McKenzie was best man.

Following the ceremony the wedding party passed through a guard of honor of 20 sergeants from No. 2 district depot. A reception, the first to be held there, was held in the sergeants' mess, the happy couple receiving with Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Murray. The former were a teal blue crepe frock with black hat and accessories, and an old-fashioned nose-gog. The latter wore a brown crepe frock with matching accessories and a corsage of sweet peas.

Capt. A. E. Dunn handed the bride a 113-year-old sword with which to cut the cake.

WILL DRILL NEW WELL
At a special meeting of Aurora town council on Monday evening to review the water situation, Councillor A. A. Cook was instructed to make arrangements to get a well-driller and commence digging for water immediately.

"OLD SWEAT" FINALLY GETS GREEN LIGHT
"This is the happiest day in my life, my fingers have been itching for the past three years," Albert Webster of Vancor, veteran of the Great War, told The Era and Express on Friday as he was attested in Toronto as a member of the Veterans' Guard of Canada.

Mr. Webster served in the last war with the R.A.F. He is a native of Newmarket, his father being killed in the Afghanistan campaign as he served with Lord Roberts.

Since the present conflict started, he has seen his son, 22-year-old Albert, Jr., go overseas at 19 with the Toronto Scottish and come through Dieppe, his son-in-law, Staff Sgt. Robert Boyd, go overseas with an infantry unit, his eldest daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Boyd, enlist in the C.W.A.C. and be transferred to Washington, D.C., and his second daughter, Marjorie, also don the C.W.A.C. uniform.

That was too much for an "old sweat" like "Dad" Webster and he tried three times before he made the grade with the medical board and was accepted for service.

DOWN THE CENTRE

O tempora! O mores! or in plain language, "shucks" and then some, as remarked by that old Roman Cicero. That was the feeling around Newmarket and North York on Friday following the elimination of Newmarket camp by Lieut. Bing Caswell and his Brampton beauties. The long lay-off was perhaps the biggest item in the defeat of Dave Matheson's Redmen, as their timing was not up to usual, and we also believe that over-confidence, which didn't wane after that tie game in Georgetown, also did its part. The Brampton boys were able to hit Bob Bangay in check while Newmarket could not stop Teddy Lister, who turned out to be the individual star of the series. Lister was well covered in Georgetown but in canal-town was allowed to run rampant and clicked for five goals, a play-off four-star effort in any company. Jack Shropshire, who a few years ago played junior hockey for Bolton when they were near the top and then played mercantile, certainly bolstered the defence, as did Plumley of Brantford Lions, who played, of course, before the play-offs.

Bill McMullen, a team-mate of "Joint" McComb at Ravina rink, who last year played for Georgetown, was a valuable addition to the Caswell cadets. It was McMullen who started that last-period headache-finale and broke the ice on the over-time too. He teamed with Joe Szabo and Don Campbell to make a potent first line. Bill Harris, the league's leading scorer, played the first game but again injured his shoulder, and Big John Maudlin, who appeared briefly in the league fixtures, replaced him to perfection. Lacking the experience of his team-mates, Maudlin came through with flying colors. It is little things like that that send a team sailing through. Caswell handled the team well, too.

Nick Bangay turned in a super effort in both games. We apologize to Nick for omitting his name from scoring tabulations last week. We mentioned Newmarket had four scorers in the first two, but only counted three in. Well, with two tied for the last spot, it really meant 11 players, and Bangay secundus should have been rightly placed in the fifth spot with an 18-point total, close behind Bob and Charlie Nesbitt.

Charlie Nesbitt was another feature performer, netting four goals in the two games. As a result he walked off with the season's scoring honors for his team.

Ernie Hughes played both games in the nets and looked good, too, but there are many who feel that Al Wyznicki should have had the task of substituting the boys from No. 21. Both Orillia and Angus managements regarded Wyznicki as having the edge over Hughes. Ernie, by the way, was a member of the North York A.C. team from Willowdale which won T.H.I. honors for several years and were beaten by Aurora Tigers in an exhibition game two years ago.

Defeat was a bitter pill to take out the team ends the season in style and their success will enable Stan Smith to do so, too. Smitty was banking heavily, as were the camp's supporters, on future games, and more than one of the boys at No. 23 will not be able to look the paymaster square in the eye without some mental reservations for the next pay or two.

In defeat the Redmen were superb, and good sports about the whole thing. A week or two and he talk will be turning to softball and Camp Harkness will again go head-hunting for army honors. We erred in ending Newmarket but we said that if they won, it would be by a narrow margin, but we were right in calling Midland Shippers for the other play-off bracket. Midland took both games from Orillia, the first by 8-4, the second by 7-4. A convincing margin of their superiority.

Danny McDonald of Sutton was added to the Shippers for the final round, and was a stand-out despite lack of practice. Danny, you will recall, played for Young Rangers a few years back and last year was with the Muskoka creamery business in the Muskoka centre with Sutton connections and along with Dick Hunter and Jack O'Brien of the defunct tribesmen has made the Midland team very dangerous.

Rev. Scott, ex-Barrie Colt, who for the past few years has been a bulwark on the Midland defence, especially two years ago when the Shipbuilders' Fats won intermediate honors, also turned out for the play-offs and Jack MacDonald was an important cog in Jack Patterson's plans. As a matter of fact, we like Midland now in the odds book for group honors. They lack dispy-doodlers like Iannarelli and Lister of Brampton but they have a cagey, experienced crew, ice right at their doorstep for practice and are not making any waste moves.

In the Orillia series, for instance, Sib, Broder, a veteran of nearly 20 years, who won the assist king of the regular season, caught a new lease of life on his penultimate and popped in a brace of counters. Jack Simepp, the kid of the team, has moved right ahead from the form he showed early in the season in Newmarket until he is at this stage as good as any in the league.

We call Shipbuilders to take the series even though Brampton has a two-to-one advantage over them on the season's record. It will be close and we are cheering for Bing Caswell's boys to come through. In their final encounter Midland, at home tied up the Lister line, can likely do it again. Bill Harris would be a useful lad for Brampton to have in their line-up.

Jack Westenfelt returned to the hockey and sports scene for Orillia camp against Angus and the Bombers felt like protesting his presence but didn't do so. Midland didn't have to worry about Westenfelt, who hails from around Hanover, was a member of the Orillia Terrors lacrosse team a few years back and one night went berserk and "bopped" one of the lacrosse officials by way of protest. He was fined in police court and suspended indefinitely from all amateur sport, and despite all attempts never was reinstated. He is in the army now and we presume that just as a professional who goes on active service automatically recovers his amateur standing, the same rule applied for the dynamic Westenfelt. At any rate Angus Bombers weren't protesting a fellow service man who had served his sentence. Westenfelt played a good clean game then and in the series against Midland too.

Time marches on! and for the past three years we have recorded faithfully the names of athletes and sports figures who went on active service. There have been times when the old heart-strings sounded a little faster as we saw our friends and associates of the years go to the army, air force or navy. We have been proud of them all, and of their achievements. Now, it is with mixed feelings we announce to you that yours truly has joined the great avalanche, and as of Friday of last week "Down the Centre" has gone on active service, too. It is now old Trooper Hulce of the armored corps at Borden who will be sending out sports news to us as regularly, we hope, as we have done for so long.

We have no illusions about the role we will play in the greatest of games. Being in the late '30s, our sphere will not likely be the same as that of our friends who have the advantage of years and not being a stylish stout, we did our share on the playing field and diamond in our younger days and even cautiously essayed come-backs now and then, even with creaking joints. We never were in the "star" class as a performer or executive, and we have no reason to think we're likely to be so regarding now in a more important sense of action. We'll be in there pitching whatever our assignments may be and we hope we will be able to turn out something that will interest those of you who have been faithful followers of this column, whether it was good or bad. To some of you our action may come as a surprise, to others it will not be so.

We leave with only the kindest of thoughts for those who have made newspaper work, especially in the sporting scene, a pleasant if not a taxing task. To those of you who must perforce remain on the home front may we hope you will carry on your sporting activities as much as possible. We enter on service with the profound conviction that the men in the service want sport to carry on and the folks back home to do so, too. The past few days have been crammed with a host of unforgettable experiences as we saw results being inducted into Canada's army.

On Friday last taking the same "M" test as the old "Buck" Jones, husky member of the Maple Leafs defence of '43 "Buck", who answers to the name of Alvin, is an A1 category man and looks big enough to settle the whole affair by himself, the same as he often does on the ice. We had quite a fanning bee as we waited patiently to meet the interviewing N.C.O. and then the quiz officer who rates you mentally. Buck believes firmly the Leafs will make the play-offs but quite frankly, along with the experts, believes Detroit Redwings have the best chance to take all. "We will be in there fighting though," says Buck, "and if we can get a few breaks, might take it ourselves." He hopes to be deferred from service until the play-offs are over, not from personal wishes particularly but because he feels, as does the writer, a few weeks more won't make much difference. Says that Billy Taylor has been rated in the C2 class for the army much to his annoyance and regards the same William as about tops as a play-maker.

Born in Owen Sound on Aug. 17, 1918, Buck started his hockey there, switched to Barrie Colts in 1937, thence to Haringway Rovers in England, then to Detroit, upon the recommendation of Coach George Redding. Back and forth between there and Pittsburgh and Indianapolis, then traded to Providence Reds, farm club of the Leafs, and back this winter from the minors to bolster a weak Leafs defence. He remembers Shaw of Newmarket camp, who played with Streatham in the old land, and Gar. Preston, (as has seen Del. Beaumont in action and regards him as better than Ronnie Rowe, Ding Ingoldby, now with Providence, and as good as Jackie Hamilton, now with the Leafs. Beaumont out daily with the Leafs. Regarding Teeser Kennedy, the Leafs' 17-year-old recruit from Port Colborne, as a "honey" and

Of People And Things

WOMEN IN THIS WAR

By Isabel Inglis Colville

I suppose there never was a war in which the "blood, sweat and tears" became nearly as much a part of women's life as of men's. In the old days the women sent their men forth to war to return with their shields or on them, and even in the wars of modern days only a small part of the civilian population, particularly women, felt the thrust of the keen-sworded word, that is, of course, always excepting the Via Dolorosa, that all women tread who give their husbands and sons to fight for king and country. In the last war, the women, children and men of France and Belgium suffered terribly, but there was not the same proof of all that makes for civilization, for all that makes life worth living, that there has been in this war.

Women and children in all the nations in which Hitler has set his evil stamp, have faced starvation, torture and often death, and yet, the will for freedom lives on, they do not bow to the conqueror, nor do they beg their men to make peace. China, which we thought of as heathen and with no national spirit, lives on and fights on, in spite of starvation and unbelievable suffering, and at the head of its women there stands a figure which will, for all time, symbolize the women of China for us—Madam Chiang Kai Shek, beautiful, accomplished and Christian. She has worked for the welfare of the women and children of China, as few women have ever worked for any cause, and now, with an eloquence that reaches down into our hearts, she is pleading for help for her country. She speaks for China and when she speaks, one sees and hears not Madam but China speaking for she is China.

And among the sorely tried British women and children goes our own queen—comforting, gracious, fearless, sharing her people's sorrows, sharing their risks and bringing into their lives the feeling that she, who, with the King symbolizes all we fight for, is one with them in their hopes and grim determination to see the way through and to win the better life, founded on the four freedoms. Queen Elizabeth could have reached to some safe spot or come to Canada and kept her children with her, but instead, she has stayed in the very heart of the storm and sent her children from her not out of the country to Canada, but like many other children, to comparative safety in the homeland. Mrs. Roosevelt, too, what Madam Chiang and Queen Elizabeth share—courage, love of country and a mother love which reaches out and embraces all their people.

We lesser souls speak blithely of "doing our bit," but great souls like the three women I've written of have a will to help and a love for the sad and the oppressed which knows no boundaries. It is strange that the rulers of the three great United Nations should have wives who would always have been, charming and outstanding personalities, but who the war has made great for their names will go down in history, not simply as their husbands' wives, but as outstanding personalities in their own right.

And women all over the United Nations, wherever they are free to do so, and often through underground channels where they are not, are working, some as nurses, some in the uniforms of our services, some in factories, and, in some of our allied countries, even fighting with their men.

And, last of all, there are the housewives, the women who keep the home fires burning, who keep their fears and their worries over loved ones to themselves, and who try to preserve a serene and peaceful atmosphere for men and women who toil by night and day, and who also guard their homes for the homecoming of those who have gone to fight on other fronts.

This war, as no other event in history, has challenged women to show that they can stand firm on their determination to help bring about a real new order!

Now, he's well again and doing a war job

"MY HUSBAND'S had a nervous breakdown—just worry. He left his job in the shipyard to go into logging. But his health suffered and the doctor says he's got to take a complete rest. But we haven't any ready money. How can he rest?"

The bank manager listened to her troubles sympathetically. He knew the husband, knew the wife—both sound citizens. The bank advanced the money on personal security... on the good character of two honest, hard-working people.

In a few weeks, Fred was well again and working in the shipyard. The loan was paid back in full. Because of bank accommodation he is now getting financially on his feet again—and aiding Canada's war effort.

This true story—only the name is changed—illustrates how Canada's Chartered Banks, day in and day out, serve the human as well as the financial needs of Canadians.

By banking during morning hours you can help the war effort, facilitate your own business, and lighten the wartime burden on the men and women in your branch bank. More than one-third of our experienced men have gone to war.

The CHARTERED BANKS of CANADA

CANADA NEEDS 40 MILLION POUNDS OF FATS FOR EXPLOSIVES

Here is a day-to-day War Job for You!

There is a serious shortage of Fats and Bones in Canada and the only way in which this shortage can be overcome is by the day-to-day saving of every scrap of fat and bone. Every piece of scrap fat and every bone, cooked, uncooked, or dry, is valuable. Fats make glycerine and glycerine makes high explosives—explosives to bomb the Axis partners—Adolph, Benito, Tojo, and the U-boats, destroy their tanks. Bones produce fat. Also glue for war industry.

HERE IS WHAT YOU DO

Save every kind of waste dripping. All may be mixed together. Strain through an ordinary metal strainer into a clean wide-mouthed can. Do not use glass or paper containers. Keep in a refrigerator or a cool place until your meat is cooked or a pound or more. Save all pieces of left-over scrap fat from your meals (cooked or uncooked). Keep separate from your drippings. Keep scrap lard and bones in a cool place.

HERE IS HOW TO DISPOSE OF FATS AND BONES

The Meat Dealers of Canada as a patriotic effort, are co-operating with the Government in this all important war work by contributing their collection facilities. Now you can dispose of your Fats and Bones in any one of the following ways:

1. YOUR MEAT DEALERS will pay you the established price per pound for your fat dripping and your scraps. You can keep this money for yourself or—

2. YOU CAN TURN THE PROCEEDS over to your local Voluntary Salvage Committee and/or to a registered local War Charity.

3. YOU CAN DONATE your Fats and Bones to your local Voluntary Salvage Committee in any place where they collect them, or—

4. YOU CAN CONTINUE to place out your fat and bones for collection by your Street Cleaning Department where such a system is in existence.

Hotels, Restaurants—Your support urgently needed!

The RED CROSS is a link between him and home!

Just imagine what it would be like if there were no Red Cross. In times of war there would be no way of knowing what had happened to men missing in battle... no way of telling men in enemy prison camps that they were remembered by loved ones at home.

So that there will be no "forgotten men" among Canadians captured by the enemy, the Canadian Red Cross ships thousands of parcels overseas every week. Each parcel contains nourishing food and tasty comforts needed by men to whom the barest necessities have become luxuries. These messengers from "home" relieve the loneliness, the confinement, the monotony of prison camp routine. Each parcel costs $2.50... more than ever are needed this year. How many will you send?

PEPPERLAW
W.I. DITTY BAG IS SAILOR'S ONLY GIFT

Owing to the illness of Mrs. N.
Laviolette, Virginia, the Pepper-
law W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. A. Weir on Tuesday. The oil-cloth, "a healthful habit," was well responded to.
Mrs. Charles Weir acted as secretary. Mrs. C. K. Johnston supplied the music. Mrs. John Laviolette read a splendid paper on social welfare and current events. Several letters of thanks or ditty bags were read from the men in the armed forces. One sailor said it was his only gift at Christmas.

Miss Mary Laviolette reported that the seeds had been ordered for the garden brigade girls.
Mrs. Will Evans gave material enough for lining two quilts.
The war committee met after the W.I. meeting. The ladies reported the box for the month had been packed and ready to ship.
It was decided to buy 150 yards of yama cloth, one bolt of flane-lette, 20 pounds of yarn and 12
baby blankets for the layettes.

The Pepperlaw W.I. ladies met at Mrs. H. Corner's home last week and quilted five quilts to be put in the box for the Salvation Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith were in Toronto on Wednesday.

A number of people from Peffer-law attended the Sutton high school commencement on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Corner spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corner.

Mrs. Roy Cronsberry and Mrs.
Richard Cronsberry attended the wedding in Hamilton of Miss Helen Cronsberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cronsberry, to Sub-Lieut. Ray Horning, stationed at Halifax.

The Virginia dramatic club
have been invited to put on their play, "No Trespassing," in Sutton.
There will be a quilting for the W.I. at the home of Mrs. Cecil
Smith this week.

The Virginia dramatic club,
under the leadership of Mrs.
Cecil Smith, assisted by Mrs.
Verna Arnold, and sponsored by the Red Shield of Pefferlaw, presented the three-act play, "No Trespassing," to a record crowd
in the Pefferlaw Community hall Friday evening. The scene of the play was a rural farm home.

Those taking part were: Mrs. Joe Laviolette, Willard Arnold, Mrs.
Charles Weir, Pearl O'Neil, Mrs.
George Cronsberry, Everette Arnold, Mary Laviolette, Bill Lavi-olette, Andy O'Neil, Charles Weir, Ralph Evans.

The proceeds from the play were $48.75, which will be used for war work.

BELHAVEN

The crows were cawing to announce the coming of spring on March 1, although the weather was cold and wintry.

Owing to another snowstorm
with drifting last Saturday night, Feb. 22, there was no service held at Bethel church on March 1.
Rev. Dr. Pritchard is the minister at Bethel.

North Gwillimbury township
council met in the hall on Monday afternoon.

Some of the ladies of the North Gwillimbury Red Cross Society
were busy in the hall on Tuesday, March 2.

Mrs. E. Nelson, Leland and Glenna have been suffering from colds this week.

Miss Winnie Willoughby has been ill with a cold.

The snow-plow was doing duty again on the side roads north of Belhaven village March 4.

The mailman made his route on Friday and Saturday. On Saturday there was another snowstorm, accompanied by violent wind, making it necessary for another trip with the snow-plow on Sunday. There was no church at Bethel on Sunday owing to the storm.

"An alligator may live 800
years, but he has no soul and death ends all," declares a writer. It's a long time to wait for a trip to nowhere.

WILLOW BEACH

Mr. Harry O'Dell suffered a heart attack on Sunday.
It certainly has been an old-fashioned winter around the lake shore. As fast as the roads are plowed out and residents think they will be able to get around there is another blizzard
at the weekend.

Miss Muriel Graham, teacher of the baseline school, has been alled home owing to the illness of her mother. Mrs. Ben Johnson is teaching in Miss Graham's place.

The Boys' Comfort club met at Mrs. Wm. Thompson's on Wednesday of last week. The ladies have filled a box with quilts and warm clothing for the Russian relief.

Mr. Charles Martin has been ill.

Phyllis Sedore attended the annual commencement at Sutton continuation school on Friday.

Miss Helen Huntley spent the weekend with her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Harland Huntley.

Howard Matt was home for the weekend.

Sutton West

Sutton, Mar. 4—Miss Marion
King is visiting her aunt, Miss E. King.

Several from Sutton went to Pefferlaw Friday to see the play put on by local talent in aid of the Red Cross.

This is Red Cross week and people are asked to respond liberally when the canvasser calls.
R. Hiscott, R.C.A.F., and Miss Doris Lyons were visiting relatives in Hamilton over the weekend.

The church attendance was small on Sunday owing to the stormy weather.

Most of the hockey games scheduled for last week had to be postponed owing to soft ice.

likely to add considerable punch

"There's not so much difference between the minors and majors
as you might think," says which is an opinion held by many.

Normie Mann, who is with Pittsburgh, he figures is about due to get another big league trial, as he is going great guns.

"Buck" played lacrosse for Owen
Sound-Durham against Richmond
Hill the year they won the honorable and was asking questions about Cal Miller and all the Hill lads.
Has not played much lacrosse
since. Resides now in Colling-wood, and doesn't think too highly of this year's Collingwood team.

Does fancy the Owen Sound squad. Entirely unassuming, and a very likeable chap, it won't be long until it's a case of "This is the army, Mr. Jones."

Next kick from the sporting angle we got was while kicking
our heels waiting for the attesta-tion officer to say O.K. Sitting on a nearby seat was a pudgy, muscular guy built like a wrestler who looked familiar. A closer look revealed it to be Murray Griffin.

Quarterback de luxe from the famous Ottawa Rough Riders, Queen's, St. Mike's, etc. Murray is now Pte. Griffin and headed for Brantford camp. Not so long ago
we played in the line with Jack Griffin, Murray's brother, and for the last few years we have seen Murray hurl the old pigskin about with ease, and then some. Nearly all of the Ottawa team are on active service now. Murray, if he ever gets in shape, should be a good candidate. At least he had plenty of experience.

Harry Sutton, local softball artist and this year on defence for Sisman's, was just completing his medical the same day and on Tuesday of this week was inducted into service. Harry is the third of his family to go on active service,
while his dad is a vet. "Sluggo" Sutton should do all right in the army.

Black Schud, the former Markham-Oshawa goalie, turned up the other day in goal for the manning depot, Toronto, for the championship of the Toronto Garrison hockey league and Schud did a fair job but not good enough to take the strong team from No. 1 T.S. (Eglinton).

George Scott, former Aurora
defenceman, was a member of Schud's team, while refereeing the game was Joe Tunney, the old master of the twined cage who played against Dick and with George. It was quite a reunion.

Manning Pool gained a place in the Garrison final by defeating Army Medical, who include, as yet, overall. Wes. Heaney, George Holdings and several former Newmarket camp players. To make up for their loss, the media backed down
and won the district depot army title, much to the delight of their boss, Major C. R. Boulding, who was transferred to Camp Borden before the final game.

South Ontario winners who will face Aurora Ordnance in the first of the O.H.A. play-offs will be one of four teams now in the league play-offs, G. M. Tool and Die, Bill's Place, Whitty Randles or Oshawa
I.C.A.F. There are a few names in play for the league and they should be handled with dispatch
by the Ordnance boys, if as and when the series starts. There is a big possibility there will not be see here for more than one round.

The army boys will be able to travel, and take time off easier than the civilian players.

Bill Armstrong, former Aurora
junior last year with Penetang,
has been playing with Markham
this winter and has been signed by Milton now that the Markhams are eliminated. Sellars, the Markham goalie, has also been added to the Milton team. Jack Watson, ace Markham forward, was out for the final game at Unionville, which didn't get under way until 10:30 p.m. But a late start is nothing new for the Markham team even for their home games.

Robert Lawrie, father of the famous Lawrie brothers, Ernie, Bob and Bill, all stars at the ice game, had the misfortune to have his home burned to the ground
recently. In characteristic style the hockey team is coming to the rescue with a hockey game and proceeds to go to the building fund. Last year both Markham clubs aided the Schoutens, who were burned out.

Markham III loses its once famous grandstand come spring, as the structure is seldom used now.
The stand is atop the horse palace,
which houses the curling club in the winter and now the present plan is to add to the front of the building used as a "Dinty Moore"
club by the winter sports enthusiasts of the village. Doesn't seem many years since the stands were packed to capacity on fair day,
when a fifty list of sporting events
was always a feature.

Intermediate playdowns are fast moving on. Eliminated already

Council Names Red Cross
Canvassers For Township

Georgina township council met at Pefferlaw on Monday, March
1. The members and Clerk R. E.
Weir were all present.

The auditor's report was presented and it was moved by Councillor Cronsberry, seconded by Councillor Riddell, that the report be accepted as presented,
and that the clerk be instructed to have the usual number of copies printed.

The collector's time for returning the roll was extended until the next regular meeting.

Expenditures on the township roads totalling $619.82 were approved.

The tender of the Herald Printers, Newmarket, to do the munici-pality's printing, advertising and stationery for the year 1943
for $165 was accepted.

The following general accounts were paid: County of York, hospitization, $14.87; Herald Printers, balance of 1942 printing contract, $130; George Snoddon, wood, $9; H. H. Taylor, ambulance, $8; Angus Ego, auditor, $50; George Burgess, part salary, collector, $25.

The clerk's and treasurer's salary
was increased by by-law.

As the Red Cross is canvassing for funds from March 1-20, it was moved by Councillor Riddell, seconded by Councillor Graham,
that the following be asked to assist in the campaign in their respective school sections: 1. Mrs.
Olive Seale and Mrs. D. R. Howard; 2. Mrs. W. C. Evans, Mrs.
Smethurst, Mrs. G. Cronsberry;
3. Mrs. R. J. O'Brien; 4. Mrs.
Olive Chambers and Mrs. Herb Johnston; 5. J. E. Peers; 6. Stuart
Taylor; 7. J. E. Taylor and J. C.
Taylor; 8. Mrs. C. W. Bodley,
Mary Johnston, Mrs. H. Bodley and Miss Herman.

The council adjourned to meet again at Pefferlaw on Monday, April 5, at 1:30 p.m.

POTTAGEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred West and Mr. and Mrs. Ken. West of Hamilton spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George West.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and daughter of Hamilton spent a few days are Guelph O.A.C. Windsor army.

Point Edward, Preston, among the group winners. Peterborough camp and Trenton R.C.A.F. are playing off. South Ontario
Aurora are to meet, Brampton
Midland, Owen Sound, Colling-wood, Camp Borden still in.

"Sparky" Vall has hung up his skates for the season, as his Tim-mins club was eliminated by South Porcupine. Sparky, from all reports, did not have a good year, and is below par.

Benny Harris, last year with Sutton Greenshirts, is playing for A9 Rams at Camp Borden, for whom we'll be rooting from now
on. Did they get past Colling-wood on Monday? You know by now as well as we do.

"Red" Farrell, one of our favorite hockey arbiters, is to get his chance on the N.H.L. circuit.
"Red" is a certainty to stick as long as he wants to. Bert Fiedges also has moved up. Was surprised to learn his first name was "Em-bert." Kenny Holmes was said to be the next in line for a chance at the heavy sugar.

Howard Spence, the burly Mount Albert boy who received his start in the ring in Newmarket around 1936 when Joe Spillietto
was holding shows, and Rocco Smart, Johnny O'Connor, Burke
and others were just coming to the fore, has been in the international dispatches. Howard, now a sergeant, has been working with the hardrock engineers at Gibraltar.

On leave in London, with the permission of his O.A.C. he entered the ring at the famous and swank Queensbury club against a 200-pounder, one Martin Thornton.
Spence, weighing 183 pounds and in the pink, was all set to start in England's flinty limelight
and, in fact, in the first round severely shellacked the said Thornton, when he suddenly stopped Thornton's head with his forehead and received a big gash, forcing the referee to stop the fight.

Spence, of course, has won quite a few important bouts overseas and previous to enlisting had a goodly number of professional bouts under his belt. He is 23 years of age and is to be married to an English girl in June of this year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spence.

Willie Wilcox has turned out for hockey with senior school, who are doing well in Varsity inter-faculty competition. The big Aurora boy, who never could quite make the grade in junior company, is just about right for that kind of hockey.

Bob Dales, son of Dr. Lowell
Dales, the head man at Newmarket, has enlisted in the tank corps
and is stationed at Newmarket camp. Bob was a pretty fifty performer in track and field and basketball. Was an intercollegiate winner at Varsity in the high jump and battled it out with older brother Jack for top honors on more than one occasion.

Queen's Yorks lost the second game of their Niagara City hockey finals to Wiro Wewo 7-3, which leaves Phil, Vitale, Kenny Brown and all the lads of the active Yorks
on the ropes. Chances for a successful rebound don't look too good, either, with one loss eliminating the Tangers.

You'll be hearing from us.
Once again we say thanks a million to our readers for all that has gone before to make our task a pleasant one. We join a mounting number of gentlemen of the press and sportsmen who will be ready for come what may "ill the lights go on again all over the world."

with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Archibald.

Mrs. Bertha Arnold of Colling-wood is spending a week or so with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rose.
Miss Hattie Cutting of Toronto spent the weekend with her mother.

Mrs. Atraksinen of Toronto visited at her home here over the weekend.

Mr. Everton Paton of Aurora

At the union church service for Sunday Rev. J. A. Koffend will have with him several soldiers who will take part in the service.

Sunday was such a stormy day there was only a small attendance at the Union Sunday-school. Much interest was taken in a specially prepared temperance program based on the poster, "The leopard never changes his spots," provided by the Ontario Temperance Federation.

A report was read of a recent temperance crusade meeting at Kimbourn Park United church Toronto, when a group of young men launched a Christian crusade for the enlistment of youth or total abstinence.

An invitation was given to the Sunday-school for more signers on "My Purpose Roll." The temperance superintendent for Pine Orchard Sunday-school is Mrs. Edson Johnston, of Pine Orchard.

Rev. J. A. Koffend's sermon, based on Psalm 36, was appreciated on Sunday. In the absence of the regular pianist, Pte. Henry Cooper took charge of the music.

KESWICK

Three Sets Of Twins Attend Church Supper

Mr. Vernon Rye was at home from Toronto for the weekend.

Mrs. Percy Mahoney spent a few days this week in Toronto.

Mrs. Ross Pollock entertained at a quilting on Tuesday afternoon.

Owing to the severe storm on Saturday, Rev. Mr. Morton and Mrs. R. W. Serriek were unable to get through to have Christian church services for Sunday. It is hoped the roads will be in condition and there will be services on Sunday.

Miss Muriel Rye, who is doing war work in Toronto, was at home for the weekend.

Ernest Morton left on Monday for jury duty in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Morton and daughter of Brownhill will be with Mrs. Ernest Morton during Mr. Morton's absence.

A number from Keswick attended Elmhurst Institute's Russian relief euchre at Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hirst's last Wednesday evening.

The Keswick service of the world day of prayer will be held on Friday afternoon, March 12, at the Christian church. Mrs. Lunn is the key woman for this district. Mrs. Gordon Lapp is assisting her in preparing the service. The service will begin at 3 o'clock.

A good crowd attended the March supper of the United church last Thursday in spite of the unfavorable weather. The Irish menu was delicious and the Irish decorations attractive.

At the concert after the supper Mrs. Ernest Morton and Miss Edith Morton gave interesting readings. Mrs. Morton's was about the meeting of Winston Churchill and President Roosevelt. Miss Morton, after a humorous reading, recited an inspiring poem that told of the heroism of a northern Ontario woman.

Wm. Davidson made a few entertaining remarks. Rev. Gordon Lapp, chairman of the program, called three pairs of identical twins, Donald and Douglas Peters, Norman and Michael George of Keswick and Ronald and Donald Breen of Haversham to the platform.

The program was concluded by "The Dear, Dear Children," a humorous one-act play telling of the trials of a group of seven mothers with their children. Mrs. Frank Marritt was in charge of the play.

The cast, in the order they appeared, was as follows: Miss Joy Marritt, Miss Doris McGonerty, Mrs. John Hopkins, Mrs. Gordon

POLICE COURT

One Speeding Charge Is Handled By Police Court

York county police court, which was cancelled a week ago Tuesday for lack of cases, was in session on Tuesday, with but six cases before Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe. One was settled and the other five were adjourned.

Police court sessions since Christmas have been brief, due largely to the curtailment of motoring. During the months of February and March last year there were from ten to 15 cases each week, the majority of which involved motor vehicles.

For speeding on Yonge St., Raymond Gillis, Ketticby, was fined $10 and costs. Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson laid the charge.

Asking for a two weeks adjournment of the case of Simpson Fountain, Pefferlaw, who is charged with assaulting John Beliski, Pefferlaw hotel proprietor, and causing bodily harm, Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C., told his worship that the witnesses in the case were unable to appear in court because they had been "snowed out" and one witness had "frown."

"I am adjourning the case for one week," Magistrate Woodliffe said. "That is as long an adjournment as I can give. I am limited to eight days. Next week Mr. Mills will adjourn it for another week. You need not appear in court until the following week."

With the consent of the crown, a charge of common assault against the defendant was withdrawn. The charges against Mr. Simpson were laid by County Constable William Hill of Sutton.

WARNING

CANADA FACES A WOOD-FUEL FAMINE NEXT WINTER

ARE YOU one of the Canadian householders who burned fences, 'ors, and even flooring to keep warm in this winter's sub-zero weather?

Or perhaps you are one of the lucky ones who just managed to scrape through?

In either case, you will want to be prepared for next winter when greater hardships loom unless you take immediate action.

The shortage already has affected many communities . . . total stocks of dry wood are nearly exhausted . . . in some places the small supply of green wood cut for next winter is being used now to meet the present emergency.

Throughout most of Canada, fuel-wood is obtained not far from where it is consumed. Its production and distribution are the business of local citizens.

The Dominion Government recognizes that the wood-fuel shortage is so serious that even with the full co-operation of everyone in affected communities an adequate supply is not assured. Accordingly, it has been decided to stimulate the output of wood-fuel by assisting those normally engaged in its production and distribution. To this end, the following measures will be adopted:

1 A subsidy of $1.00 per cord will be paid to dealers on all commercial fuel-wood contracted for and cut on or before June 30, 1943, and held to dealers' account on that date.

2 The Coal Controller has been authorized to arrange in his discretion for the payment of such portion of the transportation costs as he considers proper in respect of fuel-wood, particularly in cases where dealers, to procure supplies, find it necessary to contract for fuel-wood at locations outside the area from which they normally derive their supplies. In order to obtain any such reimbursement, dealers must obtain a permit from the Coal Controller before contracting for such supplies.

3 The Coal Controller will repurchase from dealers at dealer's cost all commercial grades of fuel-wood on which a subsidy of $1 per cord has been paid and which are still in dealers' hands as at May 31, 1944.

4 Assistance will be given in providing priorities for necessary equipment.

5 Farmers now on the farm, and who leave the farm temporarily in response to this appeal to engage in fuel-wood cutting, will be deemed by National Selective Service to be carrying out their regular occupation as farmers and will be given all the rights of deferment of military service which such an occupation now carries. Such temporary absence should not, however, interfere with agricultural production.

Municipal councils, farmers, fuel dealers, individual citizens, service clubs, and all other groups in communities where wood-fuel is burned, are urged to begin at once a rapid survey of their local situation, and to take immediate action to relieve the shortage.
